FRANK E. HOWE, Editor and Pub.

BENNINGTON, VT., JUNE 12, 1914.

The Pageant of the Mohawk Trail is to be given at North Adams next week. When Bennington gave a jug east three years ago the folks of Berkshire county patronized it in large numbers and found themselves amply repaid. Next week will be the time to reciprocate.

We have satisfied ourselves first-hand that Hon. Charles A. Prouty does not deserve to be considered a candidate for the senatorship in any sense of the word. We regret his decision, but the matter rests with him and we abide it.—Randolph Herald and News.

The foregoing is from an intelligently edited newspaper which has earnestly and consistently supported Mr. Prouty. Coming from such a source the statement may reasonably be considered conclusive.

The Banner is glad to notice that both Senator's Dillingham and Page voted against the tolls repeal bill in the senate. There are honest and able men who take the other side of the arguments, but we feel that the bill is a surrender to Great Britain on a point of honor and a victory for the transcontinental railroads over the rights of the people. It appears to us to be one of those blunders of the Democratic majority that should seal the fate of the party in the election. It also shows the need of the opposition to the Democratic party getting together in spite of the jealousy and hatred among the leaders of the two factions.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette told an audience of three thousand women in Chicago this week that the dress fashions now in vogue in this country came from the brothels of Paris. Mrs. Burdette in the course of her address said: "As the fashions are today, a woman would have to design nearly everything for herself if she would not wear immoral cloths. The reason is plain enough—fashions, especially French fashions, are not designed for good women. They will not spend enough money to suit the merchants. That is the reason that every new fashion is designed originally for the demimonde of Paris." This is pretty serious criticism of women from a woman. If a man had said it what a storm would have burst forth.

Gov. Fletcher is on sound, familiar ground when he talks about a political house-cleaning. The people, without any doubt, will attend to that in the matter during the summer, but will they forget, meanwhile, to give their town representatives some leading instructions about a 60-day session and fewer appropriation bills?—Randolph Herald.

If the voters of the several towns will look over the men who have represented them at Montpelier during the past dozen years and will send back the best man of the lot, regardless of his political belief, they will do more to reduce the cost of legislation than they can in any other way. It is to be always borne in mind that the legislature is always just what the people at home make it.

To a lover of trees the cutting down of a beautiful elm or oak, the symmetry and beauty of which has been attained only through a growth of years, causes a distinct pang, this even in cases of necessity, while a wanton slasher seems little short of criminal.

A small can of white lead worth less than a quarter cost a North Dakota farmer $800 a short time since. He had been pointing up the cracks in a water trough and thoroughly left the can there. A number of his cattle licked the soft lead, and eight were dead before he discovered the cause of the trouble.

A good many corn belt farmers have realized from $50 to $100 per acre from fields of alfalfa, including returns from both hay and seed. In view of such a showing, any farmer who lives in a section where the soil and climatic conditions are favorable to the growth of the legume ought not to require a great deal of persuasion to try a few acres.
